KOSTURIK NEARS HOCKEY SCORING LEAD

Fourth year forward Mark Kosturik has moved to within three points of becoming the all-time Concordia Stinger scoring leader. The record of 252 career points is currently held by former team captain Gilles Hebert.

Kosturik entered the 1985-86 season with 81 goals, 95 assists and 176 points. This week Mark picked up 4 points in the Stingers' 7-4 win over U.Q.T.R. Thursday and added an assist as the Stingers were beaten 6-5 at McGill on Sunday night to run his point total to 63 on 37 goals and 36 assists.

Kosturik and the Stingers have two games remaining on the regular schedule, this Friday February 14th at Trois Rivieres and Saturday February 15 at home against McGill at 3 p.m.
